

Course Registration Checklist and Informed Consent form

Please read all of our Registration Policies and Procedures and sign the following page to confirm your acceptance and understanding.

- Certificates of Completion are remitted to Participants who have successfully completed an entire seminar, day, or course. Certificates are remitted only at the end of a seminar or course.
- Certificates are sent via email, once participation in the course has been confirmed. If a stamp from a certifying body is required, participants need to inform the administration on registration for the course, to confirm approval.
- Each participant will be asked to initial beside their name to indicate that they have seen the consent, and that all information provided is current and correct. If the re-issue of a certificate is required, a $25 administrative fee will be charged.
 - If a re-issue of an invoice, certificate or receipt, an administration charge of $25 will be applied.
- We require a minimum confirmed attendance by the course registration closing date. The minimum will be set by the facilitator, and the decision to run the course will be made at the early bird deadline – which is one month prior to the course. A seminar might be postponed or cancelled if there are insufficient participants
- We will advise registered Participants within one week prior to a scheduled seminar if it will be rescheduled due to insufficient registration. The seminar will be rescheduled within 3 months of the original date, and within a 50km, or 25 mile radius. If we are unable to reschedule within these parameters, and it is NOT for medical reasons, a refund will be administered to participants.
- Practitioners, who register for a seminar, cannot de-register and request refunds unless valid medical reasons along with documentation is given.
- Practitioners who registered and paid, then cannot participate for personal medical emergency, can receive a credit to be applied to future seminars.
- If a Practitioner who previously registered for a course or seminar that is postponed no longer wishes to participate in the course or seminar at its rescheduled time, they can apply for a refund. The refund will be issued , minus a 15% administrative charge .
- The Meridian Care Centre is not responsible for lost or damaged personal items arising from participation in any seminar. We are also not responsible for claim of personal injury resulting from participation in a seminar. Participants are obligated to ensure that their professional liability insurance covers any damages of their own doing.

- We reserve the right to ask any participant who is repeatedly engaging in behavior that is disruptive, disrespectful to the Instructor, upsetting to other participants, or not in harmony with the purpose of the group to leave the course/seminar.
- Participants who are asked to leave will be reimbursed the amount proportional to the balance of the time of the course or seminars they will miss. Our Facilitators reserve the right to ask a disruptive participant to leave at their discretion.

Pre-Requisites for the training

In order to qualify for this training, you must be a health care professional or have a minimum 100 hours of training in anatomy and physiology. You may be required to provide documentation to prove your training and if you cannot provide proof you may be asked to leave the training. No refunds will be issued in this case.

ALL MATERIALS RECEIVED DURING COURSES ARE COPYWRITED AND TRADEMARKED BY THE MERIDIAN CARE CENTRE AND THE CUPPING REVOLUTION. IF IT IS BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION THAT ANY OF THESE MATERIALS ARE BEING RE-ISSUED OR USED WITHOUT EXPRESS CONSENT OF THE FOUNDER OF THE MERIDIAN CARE CENTRE, AND THE CUPPING REVOLUTION, IT IS ILLEGAL, AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS WILL BE CONSIDERED.

